

2012 KEEPING SCHOOLS AND KIDS SAFE TRAINING

15th Annual Summer Training Hosted by the HIV Program at the Office of Public Instruction

June 10-11-12, 2012

Helena Wingate Inn

Draw the Line/Respect the Line

- Setting Limits for Self-Respect and Sexual Health Behaviors
- Middle-School (Grades 6-7-8) Curriculum

Focus of "Draw the Line/Respect the Line" curriculum:

In Grade 6, the emphasis is on situations in which youth may be pressured to steal, use alcohol or smoke. The five lessons feature limit setting and refusal skills in a nonsexual context.

In Grade 7, pressures regarding sexual intercourse are considered. The seven lessons feature short-term consequences of unplanned sex, information about sexually transmitted disease, and applying refusal skills in a party context.

In Grade 8, the seven lessons feature an HIV-positive speaker, practicing refusal skills in dating contexts, identifying risky situations for pregnancy and becoming infected with HIV and other STD.

In addition to the DTL/RTL curriculum, this FREE training by the HIV Program at the OPI, will provide health enhancement and family and consumer science teachers, school nurses, counselors and other interested educators with teaching strategies and lesson plans to use when teaching sexual health and bullying topics.

June 10, Sunday	4:00 – 7:00 p.m.
June 11, Monday	8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
June 12, Tuesday	8:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Early Registration: The first 25 to register will be reimbursed for two nights lodging at the state rate.

Registration: E-mail Susan Court at scourt@mt.gov; deadline is May 25.

Continuing Education: The training is offered for 17 renewal units or 1 graduate course credit through the University of Montana.

Participants will receive a complete set of Draw the Line/Respect the Line curriculum textbooks.

Montana
Office of Public Instruction
Denise Juneau, State Superintendent

opi.mt.gov

Health Enhancement teachers are receiving this mailing to your school.
Please share with other middle school staff who may be interested. Thank you!